Purina Mills Show Chow “Build Your College Fund” Show Series

Purina Mills is proud to announce their first annual point series for youth exhibitors. Young people between the ages of 8 and 18 are eligible by simply competing in the Purina Mills Show Chow Jackpots. If they are pronounced as one of the top 5 exhibitors they will receive wearables, prizes and money to help grow their college fund!

Here’s how it works...Exhibitors enter and compete with their calf in as many eligible shows with as many calves as they desire. For each calf they enter and show the young person will receive one point. They can also receive points for competing in showmanship. In each age bracket (youth, intermediate & senior) the top 5 will receive additional points at the rate of 10 points for first, 7 points for second, 5 points for third, 4 points for fourth and 3 points for fifth place. Points are accumulated from all eligible shows and at the end of the last eligible show the winners will be announced. In case of a tie, the awards will be added together for the appropriate number of places and divided evenly among those that tied.
